

SPECIAL EVENTS ORDINANCE

WALKER COUNTY, GEORGIA

Definitions.

The following definitions shall apply to the interpretation and enforcement of this article:

Director: The County Commissioner of Walker County, Georgia, or a designee for the administration of this article.

Producer: Any person, group of persons, organization, association, club, or other entity responsible for planning, producing and conducting an event. See also section on Identification of Producer

Sheriff: The Sheriff of Walker County, Georgia.

Special event: The term "special event" or "event" shall mean any organized activity having as its purpose entertainment or recreation, such as a festival, celebration, foot race or vehicle race, horse race, barrel race, rodeo, rock concert, parade or march, rally or assembly which takes place on a public street, sidewalk or right-of-way, or occurs on private property and impacts government services on public rights-of-way or may impact the health, safety or welfare of the public generally because of the nature of the assembly or the size of the assembly. The term "special event" or "event" does not include an organized activity having as its purpose entertainment, recreation or education which occurs on county or school board property or in the county public use buildings.

Vendor: Any person or persons who engage in the sale to the public of any food or food products, including beverages, goods, services, or merchandise of whatever nature from any location, either mobile or stationary, on a temporary itinerant basis in connection with a special event. The definition of vendor, as used in this ordinance, shall not be construed to include or prohibit a permanent business, operating under the provisions of business license ordinances and other applicable laws, from displaying goods or merchandise on a public sidewalk immediately in front of and adjacent to the permanent business structure so long as such displays do not impede the normal flow of pedestrian traffic and so long as other laws and ordinances pertaining to such business or displays are complied with.

Permits.

- (a) Required. It shall be unlawful for any person, group, organization, association, club or other entity to conduct or cause to be conducted any special event in unincorporated Walker County without having obtained a valid permit for such event.
- (b) Geographic limitation; responsibility for police and sanitation service. A special event shall be limited to the specific geographic area(s) within which the event is to take place and the producer of a special event shall be responsible for the provision of police (through the sheriff's office) and sanitation services within the boundaries of the event for a period of two hours past the conclusion of the event or until the area is cleared of all activities and structures related to such event.
- (c) Time limitation. Except for clearing of the area, no special event shall be allowed to continue beyond the time approved on the permit for the event.
- (d) Delineation of boundaries; preservation of areas for circulation. The outermost boundaries of the special event shall be fully and clearly delineated on a map, which shall be no smaller than 8½ inches × 11 inches in size, and attached to the application for a permit. All public streets and/or sidewalks within and adjacent to such area(s) or public rights of way on which government services are impacted shall be clearly identified. The director, or designee, shall require, as part of the approval for the event, that areas no less than five feet in width shall be designated and preserved for public circulation and access to adjoining business establishments outside the area(s) delineated for the event.

- (e) Maps for walks or runs. The producer of a special event such as a walk or run, as to which the provisions of subsection (d) above would not be practicable, shall submit with the application for a permit a map, which shall be no smaller than 8 ½ inches × 11 inches in size, showing the exact route of the course for the walk or run.

Application; fee.

- (a) A producer of a special event shall make application for a permit for such event at the office of the director on a form prescribed by the director. Application forms may be obtained from the office of the director.
- (b) An application for a special event shall be filed with the director at least 60 days prior to the date the event is scheduled to occur. However, no application shall be accepted earlier than one year prior to the date of the event.
- (c) A nonrefundable application fee of $50.00 shall be paid at the time the application for a permit is filed. Such fee shall be payable to Walker County by cash, money order, or cashier's check.

Identification of producer.

The producer of an event, if a group or organization, shall be fully identified on the application. However, a special event permit shall be issued only to an individual person, who may be the actual producer or a designated agent of the producer, and such individual person shall be solely and fully responsible for compliance with all provisions, including all financial requirements, of this article and other applicable laws.

Administrative review.

The director shall cause the application to be circulated to each government department and/or other agency whose services the director determines would be affected by the nature and activities of the proposed event. Each such department or agency shall review the application and note the services which it will be required to perform, the number of personnel to perform such services, the length of time to perform such services, the cost to perform such services, and any other information which would assist the director in facilitating the event and services required.

Special conditions on permit.

Each department of the government reviewing an application may recommend in writing certain conditions or restrictions as deemed necessary to facilitate the event, to comply with other laws or regulations, and/or to ensure the safety, health and welfare of the community. In reviewing the recommendations of the departments, the director may impose such conditions or restrictions as a part of the permit and such special conditions so imposed shall be construed to have the full force and effect of law as a provision of this article. A violation of such conditions or restrictions shall be deemed a violation of this article.

Final approval of permit; minimum review period.

- (a) The director is authorized to approve and issue a permit for a special event after considering all comments and conditions of the reviewing departments and agencies as well as other information pertaining to the proposed event as described on the application, and after the payment of all applicable fees and costs.
- (b) A minimum of 30 working days shall be allowed for the administrative review of an application and the issuance of a permit.
- (c) The government shall either issue or deny the permit no later than 30 working days following the date the completed application is filed. If the permit is denied, the producer shall be notified of the denial; on written request by the producer for the reason(s) for the denial, the reason(s) for the denial shall be given in writing.

Emergency issuance of permit.

In extraordinary circumstances, the director shall be authorized to waive or otherwise expedite any or all of the review process and to issue a special event permit upon payment by the producer of all applicable fees and costs for such event.

Permit fees.

- (a) The fee for a permit to conduct a special event shall be based on all services to be provided by the government for such event and shall be equal to the estimated actual cost to the government to provide such services. The initial permit fee shall be the aggregate of the estimated costs of such services calculated by each government department. The director may require a security bond be provided by a producer or a cash deposit, if he determines that a security bond or deposit is necessary to provide for unanticipated expenses in connection with the event. If, at the conclusion of the event, the cost of government services is greater than the initial payment, the producer of the event shall be billed for the difference. Failure to pay the outstanding amount within 30 days of the billing date shall be a violation of this article.
- (b) The initial permit fee must be paid in full prior to the issuance of a permit and no later than 72 hours prior to the date of the event.
- (c) The fees required in this section shall be in addition to any other fees which may be required by any other ordinances or regulations that might be applicable.
- (d) No producer of any special event, except as otherwise provided for, shall be exempt from the payment of the appropriate fees and charges required under this article. The commissioner may exempt all or a portion of the fee upon petition of the producer.

Liability.

The producer of any special event shall hold harmless the government of Walker County, Georgia, its officers, departments, constitutional officers, employees and agents from liability of damages arising from any acts or omissions emanating from a special event. Proof of such waiver shall be filed with, and made a part of, the application form. The producer shall be responsible for providing liability insurance that may be necessary for any special event. The amount of liability insurance shall be based on the size of the event and shall designate the county as an additional insured.

Vendors.

- (a) Sales permitted. The sale of food or any merchandise or services of any type by a vendor shall be allowed as a component of a special event provided such vendor is approved and authorized in writing by the producer of the event and shall be conducted in accordance with such conditions and limitations as shall be imposed in writing by the producer and submitted as part of the application for a permit and in accordance with such conditions and limitations as shall be imposed by county, state, and federal laws, rules, and regulations.
- (b) Authorization of vendors. The producer of a special event shall have sole responsibility and authority to allow or disallow sidewalk or street vending as a component of an event and to designate the location and activities of such vendors. It shall be unlawful for any vendor to engage in such business at any location or in any manner not authorized by the producer of the event.
- (c) Identification required. Any vendor authorized by the event producer shall be required to prominently display on his or her person a badge identifying the vendor as an authorized participant in the event.

Such identification shall be not less than three inches by three inches, shall state that the bearer is an official participant in the event, and shall bear the signature of the producer of the event.

- (d) Permit not required. Vendors authorized by the producer of an event as a component of the event shall not be required to obtain any separate vendors permit to operate during the period of the event. However, all other vendors, of whatever nature, not authorized as a participant in the special event shall obtain the appropriate licenses and permits as required under other applicable ordinances.
- (e) Unauthorized vending prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any vendor not authorized by the producer of a special event as provided under this section to engage in such business within a distance of 25 yards of such event from one hour before until one hour after the event.
- (f) Exemption. Whether or not approved by an event producer, a vendor that has been assigned a fixed location for the purpose of vending within Walker County may continue to engage in such business at that assigned location during any special event in accordance with other applicable laws.
- (g) Food sales. The vendor of any food, whether hot or cold, as a part of a special event shall be subject to all rules and regulations of the Walker County Health Department. It shall be the responsibility of the producer of an event to assure compliance with this section by any such vendors.

Glass containers prohibited.

The use of glass containers within the area of any special outdoor cafe areas within the delineated boundaries of a special event shall be prohibited.

Law Enforcement Services.

Traffic and crowd control shall be provided by the Walker County Sheriff's Office and the number of officers and/or special arrangements shall be determined by the sheriff. The sheriff and his lawful deputies, and other law enforcement agencies including deputies not assigned to the special event, shall be allowed access to the special event property at all times.

Toilet facilities.

The director of the Walker County Building Inspection Department, upon consideration of the health, safety, and welfare of the attendees of the special event and the community, may require the producer of a special event to provide temporary outdoor toilet facilities at any event at which 200 or more persons are expected to be in attendance. In addition, the number of toilets and their locations shall be determined by the director of the Walker County Building Inspection Department.

Entertainment.

Musical entertainment shall be provided in a manner consistent with the peace and good order of the community. Musical entertainment shall not commence before 10:00 a.m. and must cease before 11:30 p.m.

Fireworks.

Any producer of an event desiring to conduct a public exhibition or display of fireworks shall first obtain a permit from the judge of probate court in accordance with the provisions set forth under state law.

Tents, stages, etc.

Tents, arbors, stages, grandstands or other temporary facilities constructed or erected as a part of a special event shall be approved by the director of the Walker County Building Inspection Department.

Street closing.

The complete or partial closure of any street, sidewalk or public way as a part of a special event shall be approved by the director in consultation with the sheriff.

Banners, signs, etc.

Temporary, noncommercial banners or signs may be permitted overhead across public streets for the purpose of designating starting and finish lines for a race. Small banners, pennants, signs or other decorations which do not interfere with vehicular or pedestrian traffic, and which do not damage or deface any tree or public structure, may be allowed as part of a special event. Approval of the building inspection department shall be obtained by the event producer for any banners or signs permitted in this section. The producer of the event shall be responsible for the removal of such banners, pennants or decorations within 48 hours after the close of the event.

Duration of permit.

No permit issued under this article shall be valid prior to or past the date of the special event for which it is issued.

Cessation of activities.

The safety, health, welfare and good order of all citizens and the community shall be first and foremost and every special event shall be conducted in such manner. The sheriff or his lawful deputies may terminate any activity, whether a part of or the entire event, which does not meet this community standard. Upon notification of the event producer in person by the sheriff or his lawful deputies to cease any activity, it shall be unlawful for such producer and/or any participants to permit such activity to continue

Picketing and demonstrations, etc.

Any person, group or organization engaged in any picketing, demonstrations, assembly, gathering, procession or other activity protected by the U.S. Constitution shall be prohibited from blocking the ingress and egress of any public or private place. Any person, group or organization engaged in such activities is required to make application as set forth in this ordinance.

Funeral processions.

The provisions of this article shall not apply to any parade or procession conducted under the supervision and direction of a funeral director in conjunction with any funeral.

Sidewalk cafes; displays.

The provisions of this article shall not apply to any sidewalk cafes or displays as regulated by other laws or ordinances.

Punishment.

Any violation of the provisions of this article shall be punished as provided in the Official Code of Walker County, Georgia. In addition to the aforementioned fines, the court may impose court costs for each offense or may combine the court costs upon the discretion of the court if any multiple violations occur at or about the same date.

Special exclusions.

This article shall not apply to meetings or events of church or religious services or assemblies or county sponsored events. This article shall not apply to regular meetings of the members and guests of civic clubs or organizations or non-profit corporations which hold 501(c)(3) status but shall apply to any organized activity of such club or organization having as its purpose fund raising and to which the general public is invited to attend.

Individual or community yard sales are exempt from the permit if they do not exceed 4 days.

Children events such as lemonade stands, etc. are exempt from the permit.

Nonprofit organizations are exempt from the permit unless it is involving public property.

Private parties that an individual may be hosting are exempt provided that no monies are exchanged.
